DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 14-22, and 27 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant application is deemed to be directed to a non-obvious improvement over the invention patented in Conklin and in view of Ontology Development for Machine Translation Ideology and Methodology. The improvement comprising, regarding claim 14, the improvement comprising, having only one concept identified as a maximal element, an intentional stance basis including a subset of the plurality of chains in the directed set, a state vector in a topological vector space corresponding to the selected concepts, each state vector in the TVS including at least one measure of how concretely the corresponding concept is represented in each chain in the intentional stance basis; a template including the state vectors in the TVS and an action associated with the template.

Regarding claim 17, the improvement comprising a directed set including only one concept as a maximal element, and a plurality of chains extending from the maximal element to each concept along the directed links, each of the first plurality of state vectors in the TVS includes at least one measure of how concretely the corresponding concept is represented in each intentional stance basis chain in a subset of the plurality of chains in the directed set, capturing an impact summary including a second plurality of state vectors in the TVS, comparing the impact summary with the template.

3. Claims 15-16, and 18-22, and 27 are allowed as their parent claims are deemed allowable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 23, and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. More specifically, the Examiner is unable to locate anywhere in the disclosure, applicant teaching, "a computer-readable medium containing a program operable on a computer."
